Final Tournament

UEFA Accreditation Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") are designed to ensure the correct and efficient functioning of the accreditation process (including the application process) for the access of media representatives and other persons who have been granted accreditation by Union des Associations Européennes de Football (UEFA) ("Accredited Persons") to UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025 (and/or any pre-and post-events and activities) (the "Event"). The Accredited Person, subject to the category of access granted to them, may elect to attend the official football matches to be played as part of the Event (each a "Match") including any pre- and post-events and activities, subject to their compliance with these Terms and Conditions.

1. The accreditation process, the Accredited Persons' attendance at the Event and anything in relation thereto is subject to all applicable laws and regulations, as well as the instructions and guidelines given by UEFA, its subsidiary UEFA Events SA (UEFA's service provider in relation to the accreditation process) and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA (a joint-venture company established under Swiss law by UEFA Events SA and the Swiss Football Association, and which is established for the planning, preparation, staging, organisation and dismantling of UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025), from time to time. In particular, all Accredited Persons acknowledge and agree to comply with the UEFA General Health and Safety Instructions and any policies and procedures in place for the Event in respect of sanitary measures.
2. UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA reserve the right to reject any application for accreditation at their sole discretion for any reason whatsoever and shall not be required to provide any explanation for such rejection. In addition, UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA reserve the right to revoke, amend or limit the accreditation device, prohibit the Accredited Person from entering any area under UEFA's, UEFA Events SA's and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA's control or expel the Accredited Person from such areas for any reason that UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA considers just or in their interests. In such circumstances, the accreditation device shall, upon request by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA, be returned immediately to UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA (or to a duly authorised person on behalf of UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA).
3. If an individual is appointed to apply for accreditation on behalf of another person or persons, then this individual shall be fully and unconditionally responsible for ensuring that each person for whom an application is made is aware of, agrees to and complies with these Terms and Conditions. In particular, the relevant individual is obliged to pass on a copy of these Terms and Conditions to each person for whom they apply. In the event that an individual is appointed to apply for accreditation on behalf of another person or persons who are considered to be a minor under the laws of their country of residence, the parent or guardian of such minor must receive a copy of these Terms and Conditions and agree to these Terms and Conditions on behalf of the relevant minor.

4. Access to the relevant zone or media area for each Accredited Person shall be granted for the sole purpose of carrying out a valid and current function in that zone or media area and only upon:
 - (a) acceptance of these Terms and Conditions;
 - (b) presentation of a valid accreditation device, which must be clearly displayed at all times whilst in a relevant zone or media area. It should not be worn at any other time; and
 - (c) if requested, proof of identity with valid photograph and signature.
5. The accreditation device shall remain the property of UEFA and is non-transferable. It may be used by the named Accredited Person only and will govern the areas which Accredited Persons are entitled to access. Accredited Persons are forbidden to go to any area not applicable to their accreditation. No Accredited Persons are allowed to go onto the field of play before, during or after the Match, or go into the tunnel and dressing room area, unless specifically authorised by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA.
6. Accredited Persons acknowledge that any and all rights in or relating to the Event are owned by UEFA and may not be used without UEFA's prior written authorisation.
7. It is strictly forbidden at any time (whether before, during or after the Event) to:
 - (a) collect, record, use and/or transmit any sound, image and/or description of the stadium and/or any Event venue(s) and/or the Match(es) (including any results, statistics, information and/or other data of the Match) for any commercial purpose other than solely for editorial news reporting purposes in permitted publications (as defined in Appendix 1) without the prior written approval of UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA; and/or
 - (b) transmit any still and/or moving images of the Event venue(s) and/or the Event and/or the Match(es) for any purposes without the prior written approval of UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA. No such materials may be formatted for viewing on any mobile devices (such as mobile telephones, PDAs, tablets etc.) or on any Internet site other than in accordance with clause 10 below.
8. Any transmission (whether audio, visual or audio-visual) from or of the Event and/or the venue(s) via the Internet, either fixed or wireless technology, or the sale or distribution of any commentary of the Match on any media, is expressly prohibited unless specifically authorised by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA.
9. Accredited Persons shall follow any and all instructions provided by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA for the registration and on-site usage of wireless equipment requiring the use of a frequency (radio, video or other). Any equipment using a frequency in violation of such instructions may be switched off, removed or temporarily confiscated.
10. Subject to clause 7, only photographs taken by officially accredited photographers may be published in permitted publications via the Internet, mobile or via "Apps" (as defined in Appendix 1) as long as they appear as still images and not as moving pictures, quasi-video streaming or slide shows. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in respect of the Event, photographs published in online permitted publications (whether via the Internet or otherwise) shall have an interval of at least 20 seconds between the posting of each such photograph.

11. No contradictory provisions under existing licences or agreements with third parties will be recognised in relation to the Event unless approved in advance by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA.
12. Accredited Persons may only use the trade marks, logos and marks associated with UEFA and/or the Event in accordance with the guidelines issued by UEFA and for no other purposes without the prior written approval of UEFA. Accredited Persons shall not engage (either by themselves or through any third party) in any marketing, promotions or any other activities associated with UEFA and/or the Event, or use any materials created by Accredited Persons under their accreditation for such purposes, without the prior written approval of UEFA.
13. Accredited Persons shall comply with all guidelines and conditions relating to safety, security and sanitary measures at the Event, including without limitation all instructions of stewards, safety personnel and/or any other duly authorised persons.
14. Accredited Persons take note that their voice, image and likeness recorded during their time at the Event and/or the Match(es) ("Recordings") may be used, free of charge, in any image, sound and audiovisual material in connection with UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025, either simultaneously or at a later date. UEFA, UEFA Events SA and Women's EURO 2025 SA or third parties engaged or otherwise authorised by them in each case (e.g., broadcasting, press) create Recordings for the purpose and on the basis of their legitimate interest of public reporting and promotion of UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025 pursuant to Art. 31 para. 1 of the Swiss Federal Act on Data Protection (FADP). Recordings may be processed, exploited and publicly reproduced by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and Women's EURO 2025 SA as well as third parties authorised by them in each case (e.g. broadcasting, press) within the scope of the same legitimate interest pursuant to Art. 31 para. 1 of the FADP.
15. Accredited Persons and all other persons at the stadium(s) and/or venue(s) are strictly prohibited from using, possessing or holding promotional or commercial, political, religious or racist objects and materials, offering to sell, selling or possessing with intent to sell goods such as food, drinks, souvenirs, clothes, promotional and/or commercial items unless approved in advance by UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA in writing. All such items may be removed or temporarily confiscated by stewards and/or any other duly authorised persons.
16. Accredited Persons must not advertise for sale or transfer, offer to sell or transfer and/or sell or transfer accreditation devices or any items relating thereto, including without limitation any bibs or other accreditation devices. Accreditation passes or other devices may not be used for any kind of commercial purpose such as, without limitation, advertising.
17. Accredited Persons must not post any image(s) of their accreditation device online, including on any form of social media.

18. Accredited Persons are responsible for their own accreditation device and shall indemnify and hold UEFA, UEFA Events SA and Women's EURO 2025 SA harmless from and against all damages and liabilities suffered or incurred in connection with, resulting from or arising out of the use of their accreditation device and/or a breach of these Terms and Conditions.
19. Persons applying for accreditation (whether such application is made by them personally or on their behalf) shall provide UEFA with the following personal data:
 - Identification data such as first name, surname, date of birth, gender nationality, place of birth or place of origin, colour photograph, residential address, ID document type, ID document number etc.
 - Contact data such as email, mobile phone number, etc.
 - Company name.
20. Persons applying for accreditation shall provide true, accurate, current and complete personal data. Personal data provided pursuant to these Terms and Conditions are processed in accordance with the FAME Portal Terms and Conditions, the UEFA Privacy Policy as set out at <https://www.uefa.com/privacypolicy/index.html>, and the Privacy Notification issued by UEFA in relation to the accreditation process for the Event. Persons applying for accreditation acknowledge having read and understood the Privacy Notification.
21. In the event that an Accredited Person misplaces or loses an accreditation device or has such accreditation device stolen, UEFA, UEFA Events SA and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA shall decide in their sole discretion whether to replace such accreditation device and, if a replacement accreditation device is issued, UEFA shall charge a fee of €150.00 (or the equivalent in the local currency) for such replacement. UEFA will donate such replacement fee amount to the UEFA Foundation for Children.
22. These Terms and Conditions have been drafted in the English language. If these Terms and Conditions are translated into any other language, then the English language text shall prevail.
23. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the substantive laws of Switzerland. All disputes arising from or related to these Terms and Conditions shall be submitted to the courts of Nyon, Switzerland. UEFA reserves the right to pursue any legal proceedings in the competent courts at the defendant's domicile.

I confirm that I have read and understood, and I agree to be bound by, these Terms and Conditions. Moreover, I agree to be responsible for ensuring that any persons for whom I have applied for accreditation (if any) (or, if such person is considered to be a minor under the laws of their country of residence, their relevant parent or guardian) are aware of, and have agreed to comply with, these Terms and Conditions.
